Notifications, feeds and messages, we are tired of being connected to the social media all the time. Now it's time to get off the grid, dröm is a wireless charging lamp which provides gentle and peaceful light only when you're charging your phone, it's like a reward for spending less time on phones.

Simply put your phone in the charging board, the light will be turned on. So when you come back home and want to get rid of disturbing things, just leave your phone there and enjoy your own time with this wonderful vibe.
