

YUJUN YAN

AQUA

Build the future together

AQUA is a “bowl”, which could be used to wash hands and to store water for reuse. It is not the same as a normal water sink because it has a special angle to help people save water. In addition, the outlet helps to easily pour out the water for reuse. The material used for AQUA is recycled glass, not only because it is easy to clean, but also because it could be recycled several times.