

The Way of the Heart

A personalised harmonograph

*Clara Bertiere,
Peder Nilsson*

The Way of the Heart is a design installation that uses the principle of a harmonograph. This means that the appliance mixes mechanical principles and sensor technology to draw geometric patterns, which in turn leads to an unparalleled experience for the visitor. By means of this principle they create their own personal pattern and then leave with a unique visualisation of their own heartbeat.