

MJÖLBY

Ondrej Ferianec
Nicolas Nestler

more about the project

The wheel is among the most frequently discarded items from Toyota Material Handling. While the outer rubber of the wheel wears out, the core steel part remains undamaged.

In our project, we repurposed this sturdy cylindrical core as a stand for a luminary, showcasing the unique surface structure retained from the metal casting process. Designed with modularity in mind, the product seamlessly fits any E27 light bulb.